

Cooperation with IAEA after the Accident at TEPCO's Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Station

◆The Fukushima Ministerial Conference on Nuclear Safety at Fukushima Pref. (Dec. 2012) :

Provided an opportunity to share knowledge and lessons learned from the accident at Fukushima Daiichi NPS, and to discuss the progress of international efforts in strengthening nuclear safety.

◆ Cooperation with IAEA in Fukushima Pref. under Memorandum, Practical Agreements and others

MOFA

Supports IAEA designated Capacity Building Center (CBC) of the Response and Assistance Network (RANET) in Fukushima Prefecture.

CBC Workshop

Fukushima Prefectural Center for Environmental Creation (Designated as CBC)

Fukushima Prefecture

10 collaborative projects with IAEA in the area of studying the technologies for decontaminating rivers, lakes, etc. and by investigating the dynamics of radionuclide in wild animals and etc.

Survey of radionuclide movement in rivers.

Photo: Fukushima Pref.

Photo: Fukushima Pref.

Wild Boar camera

Marine Monitoring

Inter laboratory comparisons and proficiency tests were organized. (Photo: https://radioactivity.nsr.go.jp/ja/contents/15000/14494/25/190805\_1.pdf)

IAEA-MOE Expert Meeting

Discussed the current status of environmental remediation, the volume reduction and recycling of contaminated soil (Photo: Ministry of the Environment of Japan )